The Inauguration

The club was inaugurated in this event at LT-201. Inaugurating the club with Saraswati Vandana gave the club a spiritual ambiance to continue on its path and strive for better learning and development. The interactions between students, the club members and the faculty mentors helped the students get a glimpse at a better career and future in the IT industry with a great skill set.

Data Science using Python Workshop

- In a three-day data science workshop focusing on Python programming, students cover fundamental concepts and practical skills for data analysis.
- Day-1: Students learn Python basics, including syntax, data types, loops, conditional statements, and functions.
- Day-2: students explore statistical concepts, perform calculations using Python, and get familiar with libraries like NumPy and Pandas for data manipulation.
- Day-3: students explore visualization libraries like Matplotlib and Seaborn to create informative charts, graph and plots for representing data patterns and trends.

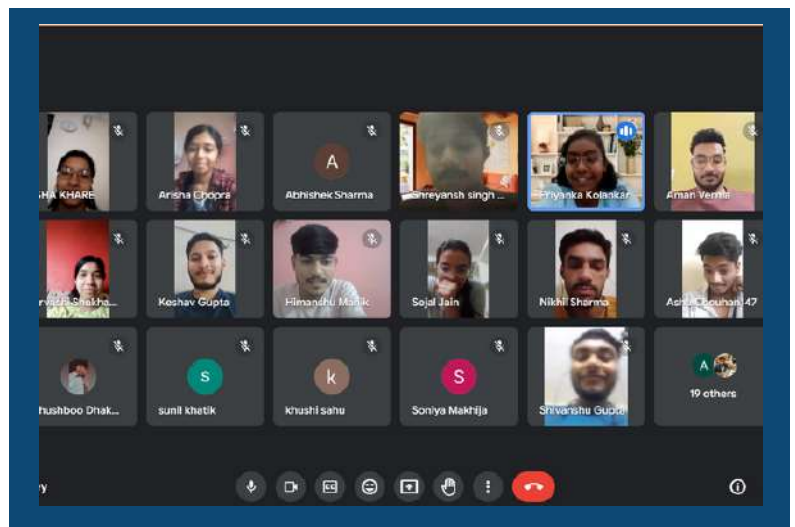

Organised in AAYAAM '24, the Techno-Cultural Fest of SGSITS, on 22nd - 23rd February 2024, PsychQuest was a great series of 4 games that challenged the participants' psychologically, challenging their cognitive as well as creative abilities. The winners were given rewards and gifts for their exceptional performance. Managed by Volunteers of First-Year MCA Students, the PsychQuest was the highlight of the event and was a great success.
