PREAMBLE

Rajiv Gandhi Prodyogiki Vishvavidyalaya (R.G.P.V) University was established in the year 1998, by Madhya Pradesh Vidhan Sabha Act 13, 1998 and SCHOOL OF PHARMACEUTICAL SCIENCES (S.O.P.S), was established in year 2002, Over a sprawling Campus of about 247 acres.

S.O.P.S is one of the front line institutions in Madhya Pradesh dedicated entirely for post graduate study and research in Pharmaceutical Sciences and allied disciplines. Dynamic and internationally top rated research is integrated with excellent teaching to further knowledge and understanding of medicines-how they made, how they act and how people use them to prevent and cure diseases. Our school aims to nurture outstanding researchers in a modern, forward-thinking and exciting place of work. We are committed to the innovative education of graduate and professional students through a scientifically integrated program to become outstanding pharmaceutical scientists and pharmacists. We aspire to be nationally recognized in achievement in pharmaceutical sciences research and education and to actively pursue our goal to be recognized as a contract research organization (CRO) something that we are well on the way to achieving.

The Department of Pharmacy (Formerly State College of Pharmacy) of the institute is considered to be one of the best Pharmacy schools of Central India imparting need based undergraduate and postgraduate pharmaceutical education. Equipped with sophisticated research instruments and lab equipments, well qualified and experienced faculty and with a good library, computing and lab facilities it offers four years Bachelor of Pharmacy (B.Pharm.) degree, two years Master of Pharmacy (M.Pharm.) degree in the disciplines of Medicinal & Pharmaceutical Chemistry (started in 1989) and Industrial Pharmacy (started in 1999) and a full time Ph.D Degree programme.
