The paper is organized as follows.

1. The minutes of the previous BCS meeting held on 04/07/2025 were confirmed.
2. The syllabus for B.Tech I Year Chemistry was thoroughly reviewed and discussed in detail with the recommendations of the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 and the new syllabus for the First Year B.Tech programme (B.T. 04/2025/1777) on 04/07/25 and the revised syllabus was adopted. However, B.T.04/2025/1777 was not implemented due to the lack of support from the faculty and first year B.Tech students, making it advisable to postpone implementing it and suggest test studies for theory and practical respectively.
3. One of the BCS members Dr. Indrajit Dey, Assistant Professor, emphasized the importance of chemistry in engineering education for work has been infused in systems (HCS). The other BCS members took the minutes he suggested to the faculty to conduct theoretical testing.
